

Ravenmore Royalty Free Licensed Assets

v.1.0, 20th December 2020

1. Grant of license

This Agreement is a license, not an agreement of sale. Licensee shall not acquire any copyright ownership or equivalent rights to any of the Licensed Content. Seller and the Licensed Content sources retain all right, title and interest in and to all of the copyrights, trademarks, and all other proprietary rights in the Licensed Content. All rights in and to Licensed Content not expressly granted in this agreement are retained by Seller or its suppliers.

This is a Single Entity License - licensee may provide access to Licensed Content only to Authorised Users within a single Entity, provided that access to Licensed Content is used solely for the purpose of creation or reproduction of Works for Distribution made by or on behalf of Licensee. Subcontractors hired for the purpose of creating the Work for Distribution are required to acquire their own license.

Licensee may use the Licensed Content in up to 1 commercial projects. A commercial project is one defined as a Work for Distribution launched with the capability to generate revenue, or intention to generate revenue through the sale of, licensing of, or otherwise intend to generate revenue directly from the Work for Distribution. If Licensee wishes to use the Licensed Content in more than 1 commercial projects they will need to purchase an additional License or the Licensed Content at the exclusive price if one is available (c.4).

Licensee is permitted to use the Licensed Content in unlimited free projects. A Free Project is one defined as a Work For Distribution that generates zero revenue, has generated zero revenue and does not have the capability to generate revenue in any form.

Licensee is required to list usage of the assets in the credits section of his game, along with a link to where the assets were acquired. Crediting the author directly is not required.

2. Restriction on Use

Licensed Content may not be used contrary to any restriction on use indicated herein.

Licensed Content may not be resold, sublicensed, assigned, transferred or otherwise made available to third parties except as incorporated into Works for Distribution. Licensed Content may not be distributed to third parties as standalone files or in a way that unreasonably permits the recipient to extract the Licensed Content for use separately and apart from the Work for Distribution.

Licensee may not distribute the Licensed Content in any library or reusable template, including but not limited to game templates, website templates intended to allow reproduction by third parties on electronic or printed products. Licensee may not distribute Licensed Content in a manner meant to enable third parties to create derivative works incorporating Licensed Content.

Licensee may not superficially modify the Licensed Content and sell it to others for consumption, reproduction or re-sale. For example, but without restriction, Licensee may not resell audio tracks as backgrounds, hold music, ringtones etc.

Licensee may not incorporate the Licensed Content into a logo, trademark or service mark.

Licensee may not incorporate the Licensed Content in advertisements (excluding advertisements for permitted Work For Distribution), broadcast TV, theatrical or movie releases.

Licensee shall not use the Licensed Content in a manner that violates the law of any applicable jurisdiction.

Licensee shall not claim copyright or attribution of Licensed Content.

Licensee shall not use the Licensed Content in a pornographic or defamatory manner, whether directly or in context or juxtaposition with other materials.

3. Term and Termination

The license contained in this Agreement terminates automatically without notice from Seller if Licensee fails to comply with any provision of this Agreement. Upon termination, Licensee must with immediate effect stop using the Licensed Content, destroy, delete and remove the Licensed Content from Licensee's premises, computer systems and storage. Licensee must also make all reasonable efforts to ensure that copies of the licensed content are removed from any locations it has been distributed to.

Note: Below I try to summarize the above legalese in human-readable format. Still, these are not legal terms. When in doubt refer to the license text above.

TL ; DR / Key Points Cheat Sheet.

Yes You Can:

- You Can: Make one commercial game using these assets.
- You Can: Modify these assets within the scope of your game.
- You Can: Use this as part of advertising materials for the game you used it in.
- You Can: Use this for unlimited personal projects. (Any that make zero income).

Obligations:

- You do have to credit the Asset Pack. Just link back to where you bought it. Don't credit ME, the author, per se - I didn't work on your game (Although it would have been cool, I'm sure 😊).
- This is just granting a license. I remain the author and keep all rights.
- Single Entity license. Subcontractors outside of your company must have their own license.

Can Not:

- You Can Not: Modify this a bit and re-sell or redistribute as your own.
- You Can Not: Resell, sublicense or otherwise transfer rights outside of your game.
- You Can Not: Make it part of your free or commercial image library or anything other than your game.
- You Can Not: Use it for ads, animations, websites, videos, logos or anything other than your game (unless these are related to your game, in which case it's fine 😊).
- You Can Not: Use it as part of an Open Source project or game template that allows easy access to unmodified files. That's equivalent to redistributing this pack on your own. Which is a no-no.

Try to keep it fair, when in doubt – ask. And most of all, make the great work that only you can do, and don't forget to have fun! 😊
